KARNATAKA HOME GUARDS AND CIVIL DEFENCE DEPARTMENT

ANNUAL REPORT ON THE KARNATAKA HOME GUARDS AND CIVIL DEFENCE DEPARTMENT FOR THE YEAR 2018-19

HOME GUARDS

GLIMPSES

Home Guards Organisation is constituted under Karnataka Home Guards Act 1962 (Act No. 35 of 1962). It is an independent disciplined and uniformed body of volunteers.

The Home Guards Organisation in Karnataka was functioning in only Belgaum, Bijapur, Uttara Kannada and Dharwad Districts of Bombay Karnataka area from 1948 which became part of Karnataka State on 1-11-1956 consequent on the reorganization of States. Subsequently the organization was extended to other districts in the State in October 1962. The First Commandant General Sri. R.A.Mundkur,IPS., who assumed charge in April 1960 laid foundation for a solid structure on which the Home Guards Organisation has come up.

The membership of the organization is voluntary and open to all citizens of all walks of life. The members enrolled are given basic training at district level. Selected Home Guards are given advanced training at Home Guards and Civil Defence Academy, Bengaluru. The training imparted to Home Guards enables them to act effectively in the service of community in times of exigencies, besides assisting the Police in the maintenance of law & order. Their services have become indispensable during fairs, festivals and conduct of elections etc.

The Volunteers of the organization are public spirited men and women who, while following their own avocations, voluntarily undertake to place their services at the disposal of the authorities to carry out such duties and functions in relation to protection of persons, security of property and preservation of public order or tranquillity as may be assigned to them in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the Rules there under. A nucleus of full time paid staff is sanctioned for purposes of administration and providing necessary guidance and training.

The control and administration of the organization throughout the State is vested with the Commandant General, Home Guards now nomenclature as Director General of Police & Commandant General, Home Guards and Director Civil Defence. He is assisted by [1] Inspector General of Police, Addl. Commandant General, Home Guards and Addl. Director, Civil Defence (2) Deputy Commandant General, Home Guards and Ex-officio Deputy Director, Civil Defence (3) Administrative Officer, Home Guards and Civil Defence, Headquarters and (4) Accounts Officer at State Headquarters level and a Commandant, Home Guards and Civil Defence Academy and Assistant Administrative Officer in the training wing at State level.

Today the Karnataka Home Guards is reckoned as one of the best organization of its kind in the country.

The Motto of the organization is “NISHKAMA SEVA”.

STRENGTH:

The Home Guards Organization is functioning in all the 31 districts of the State. In Bengaluru the activities of the organization has been bifurcated and distributed among 03 districts viz., Bengaluru North, Bengaluru South and Bengaluru Rural. Total 419 units are active in the state. The sanctioned strength of Home Guards for Karnataka State by the Government of India is 21700. Government of Karnataka has raised the sanctioned strength to 30,000 in G.O. No. OE 29 KAGRUSE 2014 dated: 09-03-2016 taking into consideration the important role being played by the organization. At present 26005 Home Guards are on roll serving as volunteers including 4519 Women Home Guards.

TRAINING :

To train the newly recruited staff and in-service personnel, the employees of various Government Institutions seeking basic training in First Aid, Fire Fighting, to cater to the needs of other State Home Guards in Watermanship training course and also impart advanced training to the Home Guards of all the districts in the State, a well Established Training Academy viz., “Home Guards & Civil Defence Training Academy” (CTA) is functioning at No.1, Annaswamy Mudaliar Road, West Bank of Ulsoor Lake, Bengaluru-560042.
